2010

Kansas City, Mo. – The American Subcontractors Association of Kansas City named 360 Architecture as the Architect of the Year for 2010 during their 14th annual awards banquet March 16.

“We are thrilled to receive this prestigious honor,” said Peter Sloan, a principal at 360 Architecture, who accepted the award for the firm. “It recognizes the quality of our design work and the strong, collaborative relationship we have developed with the construction industry.”

Representing subcontractors, suppliers and service providers in the construction industry, the association promotes ethical and equitable business practices, quality construction, safe and healthy work environments, and integrity.

360 Architecture was selected as the winner from 11 architectural firms nominated.

360 Architecture is an innovative architectural practice widely recognized for excellence in planning, design and execution across a wide range of project types, including corporate and commercial office buildings, sports arenas and stadiums, mixed-use districts, recreation centers, residences, restaurants and municipal facilities. 360 Architecture is headquartered in Kansas City, Missouri and has offices in Dallas, San Francisco, and Columbus.
